

Chris Wilson is doing a FREE show at the Brantling Bluegrass Festival on July 26.

The Brantling Bluegrass Festival is pleased to announce a SPECIAL ADDITION to our program. On Wednesday, July 26 (the evening before the festival begins), Chris Wilson of Brockport will perform from 7 to 9 PM on the Brantling Bluegrass Festival Stage. His appearance is being sponsored by Reliant Community Credit Union.

Previously Chris performed the evening before the 2014 Brantling festival and most recently as the opening act for the Sodus Rotary's Flatt Lonesome show last fall.

Campers may begin arriving around noon on Wednesday, July 26, so we decided to offer a little entertainment for the early arrivals.
